

Cowlam Kennels Terms and Conditions

A CURRENT VACCINATION CERTIFICATE INCLUDING KENNEL COUGH MUST BE PROVIDED ON ADMISSION

Whilst every possible attention is given to each dog boarding at Cowlam Kennels, it is done so entirely at the owners risk.

Cowlam Kennels' must be informed of any current or ongoing problems relating to your dogs health or temperament at the time of booking. We reserve the right to refuse any dog whom we consider unsuitable for boarding in relation to their health or temperament.

Should it be necessary at our discretion to obtain the advice, assessment or treatment from a veterinary surgeon for an existing problem, all fee's incurred are the responsibility of the owner. None pre-existing conditions are covered under our boarding kennels insurance policy to a maximum of £500, any amount in excess of £500 being payable by the owner after their consent to proceed with treatment.

Only dogs from the same household may share a kennel, this is entirely at the owners risk. By signing this document you are giving consent for your dogs to share a kennel. Should we feel in the interest of your dog's safety the need to separate them, a relevant fee for the extra kennelling will be levied. All fees are charged per day or part day. Should a dog be collected before the booked departure date, the fee for the entire period booked will be charged.

Cowlam Kennels reserves the right to dispose of dogs not collected within 14 days of the stated departure date, if no communication from the owner (or guardian) is received and efforts to contact the owner have failed.
